

How Husbands Can Love Their Wives

1. Love your wife by communicating your love for her verbally. The words, "I love you!" should be spoken regularly from a Christian man to his wife without the need for prompting.
2. Love your wife by providing for the satisfaction of her varying needs - 1 Tim 5:8; 1 Jn 3:17; Eph 5:28
These needs include physical, emotional, intellectual, social, recreation, sexual and spiritual needs.
3. Love your wife by protecting her - Eph 5:28
Not just from danger, but also from overwork and exhaustion.
4. Love your wife by assisting her to fulfill her chores/responsibilities
Be willing to help with dishes, house cleaning, childcare, shopping, etc. (Whatever can lighten her load)
5. Love your wife by sacrificing for her - Eph 5:25; Phil 2:5-6
When you come home tired from work and your wife needs your help or attention, deny yourself and do what she wants to do. You will be saying "I love you" in a very powerful way.
6. Love your wife by allowing her to share your life - 1 Pet 3:7
Generally speaking, the more you share with your wife, the more you open up to her, the more she gets the message that you care and that you love her.
7. Love your wife by refusing to compare her unfavorably with others.
Never -- I repeat -- never compare your wife to another woman. This communicates disrespect and dissatisfaction.
8. Love your wife by demonstrating to her that, apart from your relationship to Jesus Christ, she has first place in your life.
She needs to know that you delight in her more than anyone or anything else -- including children, jobs or hobbies.
9. Love your wife by giving her a lot of tenderness, respect, chivalry, and courtesy - Eph 5:28; Col 3:19; 1 Cor 13:4-5
Do not use jokes about her, embarrass her, or make cutting remarks about her in front of others! Speak to her in a gentle and respectful way. Be a gentleman -- even in private.
10. Love your wife by expressing appreciation and praise generously and in large doses - 1 Pet 3:7; Prov 31:28
Express appreciation to her for everything! Make your wife the most appreciated and loved woman in the world!

How Husbands Can Love Their Wives

1. Love your wife by communicating your love for her verbally. The words, "I love you!" should be spoken regularly from a Christian man to his wife without the need for prompting.
2. Love your wife by providing for the satisfaction of her varying needs - 1 Tim 5:8; 1 Jn 3:17; Eph 5:28
These needs include physical, emotional, intellectual, social, recreation, sexual and spiritual needs.
3. Love your wife by protecting her - Eph 5:28
Not just from danger, but also from overwork and exhaustion.
4. Love your wife by assisting her to fulfill her chores/responsibilities
Be willing to help with dishes, house cleaning, childcare, shopping, etc. (Whatever can lighten her load)
5. Love your wife by sacrificing for her - Eph 5:25; Phil 2:5-6
When you come home tired from work and your wife needs your help or attention, deny yourself and do what she wants to do. You will be saying "I love you" in a very powerful way.
6. Love your wife by allowing her to share your life - 1 Pet 3:7
Generally speaking, the more you share with your wife, the more you open up to her, the more she gets the message that you care and that you love her.
7. Love your wife by refusing to compare her unfavorably with others.
Never -- I repeat -- never compare your wife to another woman. This communicates disrespect and dissatisfaction.
8. Love your wife by demonstrating to her that, apart from your relationship to Jesus Christ, she has first place in your life.
She needs to know that you delight in her more than anyone or anything else -- including children, jobs or hobbies.
9. Love your wife by giving her a lot of tenderness, respect, chivalry, and courtesy - Eph 5:28; Col 3:19; 1 Cor 13:4-5
Do not use jokes about her, embarrass her, or make cutting remarks about her in front of others! Speak to her in a gentle and respectful way. Be a gentleman -- even in private.
10. Love your wife by expressing appreciation and praise generously and in large doses - 1 Pet 3:7; Prov 31:28
Express appreciation to her for everything! Make your wife the most appreciated and loved woman in the world!